

In Her Way

Who are you
Light says: bent blur
You have no eyes
no dream
no balance

We two bowled into water and hit world-center

*we are red and red
you blink green behind a wave.
behind an all-caps ground
love's not the coolest color
all we ever saw was a face*

You went west
You are still

You are not yet
what you want to be.
You have no wheel, motor or screen

Maybe you'll find it but for now

You're just keeping You're just flying my stars

you blink green behind a wave.
love's not the coolest color
all we ever saw was a face*

I can't hold tongues of whirling folk I don't drink smoked-out tales

I won't breathe again
Unless my little red heart is brought to me

I don't think you will either No one showed us how else

*we are red and blue you blink light behind a wave.

We are red and red and red I'm his and he's mine and we are no one's
